

FALL 2019 – CAMPUS INSTRUCTIONS TO WITHDRAW OR CANCEL AN APPLICATION

UC Berkeley

Go to My Application Portal (MAP@Berkeley portal) at: <https://apply.berkeley.edu/apply/status> Log in to the portal and complete a Withdraw Application Request under the Account Tools section.

UC Davis

Go to <https://admissions.ucdavis.edu/appwithdraw/> and use the online submission form using your name, application ID, and e-mail address.

UC Irvine

Go to the UCI admissions website at: <http://www.admissions.uci.edu/myadmission/index.php>

Click the button on the website to log into your MyAdmission portal, and send a message through the Message Center. Please include: Name, Application ID or UCI Student ID and a brief explanation.

UC Los Angeles

Go to the UCLA admissions website at: <http://www.admission.ucla.edu/ContactForm/Applicant.aspx> and use the online submission form to submit the withdrawal of his or her application. There is a button to click entitled "Withdrawing your application."

UC Merced

Send e-mail to admissions@ucmerced.edu or fax to (209) 228-4244

Please include: Name, Application ID or UCM ID, date of birth and subject line "Withdrawal"

UC Riverside

Log in to your MyUCR account and click on the "My Profile" tab, followed by clicking on the "Cancel Application" tab and follow the instructions.

UC San Diego

Applicants may submit a withdrawal request through the UC San Diego applicant portal starting in mid-December. An email will be sent from UC San Diego when the portal opens. If a withdrawal needs to be submitted prior to the opening of the portal, please send an email to SIRDecline@ucsd.edu from the same email address listed in your submitted UC application with your Name, UC Application ID, and the reason for your withdrawal.

UC Santa Barbara

Go to the UCSB Office of Admissions website at www.admissions.ucsb.edu/contact-us and use the online submission form. Please select "Cancel My Application" from the drop-down menu and include the email address listed in the student's application. Please include: Name, Application ID.

UC Santa Cruz

Go to: https://cruzid.ucsc.edu/idmuser_self_service to claim your CruzID. Follow instructions to claim your account and set your CruzID Gold password. Use the self-service option within the MyUCSC portal to withdraw your application.