Statement of Legal Residence (SLR)

- Applicants can choose whether or not they would like to be evaluated for California residency for tuition purposes. California resident students should select “Yes”.
 - Both options will prompt additional questions

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

About you

Statement of Legal Residence

* required

To determine your University of California (UC) tuition, applicants must indicate if they would like to be evaluated for a Residence Classification via the Statement of Legal Residence (SLR). You must meet UC requirements to qualify for in-state tuition, regardless of your classification in another system. Parents is defined as natural or adoptive parents, not stepparent. Your answer below has no bearing on your admissions decision.

The following three requirements must be established more than 365 days immediately prior to the residence determination date:

- 1) Physical Presence - You and your parents must be physically present in California. If you moved to California primarily to attend the University of California or another school, you are ineligible for a Resident classification for tuition purposes.
- 2) Intent to remain in California - You and your parents must have established your intent to make California your permanent home and must have relinquished ties to any prior place of residence outside of California.
- 3) Immigration status - You and your parents must be citizens or permanent residents of the United States or be present under a valid I-94 for an eligible visa, and have held that immigration status.

Applicants who do not satisfy all three parts may qualify for a Special Circumstance, Exemption, or Waiver provision (such as an AB 540 ) nonresident supplemental tuition exemption) and will be asked to submit additional supplemental information at a future date. For further explanation, read the full UC Residence Policy and Guidelines .

Note: Undocumented students should use these instructions  for completing the SLR.

WHAT TO INCLUDE

- Explain anything that impacted course choices or access
- Clarify gaps in education (e.g., graduating early) or unique coursework
- Help campuses better understand the school environment

Counselors may also provide their students with a short note about unique aspects of the school that affected academic opportunities.

Example 1

My school limits AP courses to juniors and seniors. I planned to take AP Chemistry senior year, but it was removed due to low enrollment. I chose AP Biology instead. Also, I missed several weeks of school in 10th grade due to a family emergency, which affected my semester grades.

Example 2

Our school operates on a block schedule, with students taking four classes per semester. Due to this structure and course availability, some students may not be able to take all desired advanced courses or core subjects each year.

Test scores

AP, IB, SAT/ACT exams

- Students should report all planned and completed exams, even if they didn't receive a passing score

Personal Insight Questions

PIQs: Key facts

PIQs stand for Personal Insight Questions. These are short answer responses that are a crucial part of the UC admissions process. They help the admissions team understand who a student is beyond grades and test scores.

- Students must answer 4 out of 8 questions.
- Each response can be up to 350 words.
- All questions are equally weighted — no question is “better” than another.
- There's no right or wrong answer — we're looking for insight into personality, values, experiences, and goals.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

PIQs: Tips

- Have student write their responses in a separate document and then copy and paste it onto the application. Otherwise, the system will time them out
- Write and rewrite! Encourage the students to draft and revise their answers before submitting
