

Statement of Legal Residence on the Application for Admission: Questions and Answers

WHY IS THERE A NEW STATEMENT OF LEGAL RESIDENCE SECTION IN THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION?

- The Statement of Legal Residence section is not new. For the fall 2023 application it was moved from the Review and Submit section to the About You section.
- The change is part of a multiyear project to provide information to students earlier in the application process about their residency as it relates to tuition.

THE QUESTIONS SEEM MORE DETAILED THAN IN PREVIOUS VERSIONS. WHY IS THAT?

- Most of the questions about residence have not changed from prior admission cycles. For example, we have been asking students about their citizenship status and their parents' citizenship status, as well as their time living in California, for nearly twenty years.
- However, the residency section of the application was formerly placed at the end of the application and did not include the new, more detailed language about residency qualifications.
- This section of the application for admission will eventually replace the campus Statement of Legal Residence forms that admitted students complete in the spring. Some applicants whose status is not yet established will still be asked to complete a more detailed Statement of Legal Residence at a later time.
- We also added a section for students with special circumstances, including those who may qualify for AB 540.

HOW SHOULD UNDOCUMENTED STUDENTS GO ABOUT COMPLETING THIS SECTION?

- UC has developed step-by-step instructions for undocumented students who may qualify for an AB 540 tuition exemption.
- Students who are themselves undocumented or who have undocumented or mixed-documentation families are welcome at UC and are encouraged to apply.
